Changing your order of preference

How to modify your first choice of university, or where you wish to take the test:

If you have not yet paid the registration fee, you need to click on the "Delete IMAT registration" button. Immediately after this you will be able to change your first choice. You may do this until 25 July (3pm Italian time).

If you have already paid the registration fee, you need to click on the "Delete IMAT registration" button and wait for the confirmation that the refund is being processed. We will attempt to do this as quickly as possible but this may take several working hours. Once this has happened, you will be able to re-book via University. Because you need to have this process completed by 25 July (3pm Italian time), we recommend you do not start the cancellation and rebooking process after 10am on that day.
